1. Heard both sides. Rule. By consent, rule made returnable forthwith.

2. In my order dated 3.2.2006 after perusing the health report, I have noticed that the petitioner has been amputed on the left leg 2 years back in J.J.hospital and his right leg is also giving him trouble for which he was required to be transferred from Sasoon hospital to J.J.hospital. It was also noticed that it would be desirable if the petitioner is granted parole leave for four weeks. In my earlier order dated 25.1.2006 I had directed the concerned authority to decide the application for parole within a period of 4 weeks. I am informed that the application has not yet been decided. In the circumstances, I direct that the petitioner be released on parole for a period of four weeks from the date of his release by passing of an appropriate order in accordance with law. Rule made absolute in the aforesaid terms.

. Parties to act on an ordinary copy of this order duly authenticated by the Private Secretary of this Court as a true copy.
